97. The method of claim 96 wherein utilizing a TGP module to determine an intensity value comprises utilizing a desired intensity value and a previous frame intensity value.--

In the Drawings

New drawing pages with Figs. 1-11 are substituted for the original drawing pages to bring the originally filed drawings into compliance with applicable Patent Office rules for such drawings. Red-lined copies of the original drawing pages are supplied as a courtesy to the Examiner. No new matter is added as all changes are fully supported in the description of drawings in the specification.
